

Round # 1 – UCI Track Cycling World Cup

October 11 to 13 /2012

General information on the track

CALI, officially known as Santiago de Cali, it is the capital of Valle del Cauca and the third most populated city of Colombia. It is located in the southwestern area of the country, guarded by the Farallones de Cali, which make part of the Andes mountain chain.

Cali is known as the Sport Capital and hosts many major sports events that take place in Colombia. Among the most important sporting events that have taken place in our city we hosted the VI Pan American Games in 1971. We are also proud to have been the host of many world championships in different sports. Cali this year will host the Track World Cup for the twelfth time and in 2013, between July 25 and August 4 will host the World Games.

In the sport of cycling our city will have the maximum responsibility, having been appointed by the UCI to host the Track Cycling World Championships in 2014. This event will take place from February 26th to March 2nd

Cali is famous for its historical places, entertainment and day and night activities. It is also called the World's salsa Capital. It is one of the major economic and industrial centers of the country, and the main economic, industrial, and agrarian city of the Colombian southwest. It has a wonderful weather with beautiful, warm and sunny days and an average temperature of 26° C (79° F), that ranges from 19° C (66° F) to 34° C (93° F). Its altitude is 1003 meters (3290 ft) above sea level.
