

Cali, officially known as Santiago de Cali, it is the capital of Valle del Cauca and the third most populated city of Colombia. It is located in the south-western part of the country, guarded by the Farallones de Cali, which make part of the Andes mountain chain.

Cali is known as the Sport Capital of America and host of many major sports events that take place in Colombia. Among the most important sporting events that have taken place in our city we've hosted the VI Pan American Games in 1971. We are also proud to have been the host of many World Championships in different sports. Cali hosted the UCI Track Cycling World Cup for the twelfth time in 2013 and, between July 25th and August 4th 2013 hosted the World Games. In 2014 it hosted the Track Cycling World Championships.

Cali is famous for its historical places, entertainment and day and night activities. It is also the World's Capital of Salsa. It is one of the major economic and industrial centers of the country, and the main economic, industrial, and agrarian city of the Colombian southwest.

It has a wonderful weather with beautiful, warm and sunny days and an average temperature of 26° C (79° F), that ranges from 19° C (66° F) to 34° C (93° F). Its altitude is 1003 meters (3290 ft) above sea level.
